22	I, RICHARD B. BEAUCHESNE, declare as follows:
23	1. I am the Plaintiff in this action. I am familiar with the matters set forth in this
24	Declaration and, if called upon to testify thereto, I could and would competently do so.
25	2. On Thursday, April 25, 2019 - as the Plaintiff in this action - I took the deposition of
26	Defendant, Bradford Baugh, for approximately three (3) hours in Pleasanton, CA, i.e., from
27	approximately 9:00 a.m. until approximately 12:00 noon. At that point, Bruce MacLeod of the San

SOME OF DEFENDANT BRADFORD BAUGH'S FALSE TESTIMONY UNDER OATH ON APRIL 25, 2019

3. Attached hereto as Exhibits A-1 through A-7 are the following: the face page of the deposition transcript, the Reporter's certificate and, most important, pages 10 through 14 of the deposition transcript. In these five (5) pages of deposition testimony, Defendant Bradford Baugh testifies under oath to the following: (1) That in May, 1967 - at age 17 and with parental consent - he joined the United States Army; (2) that he then did his basic training and thereafter went to "jump school" at Fort Benning, Georgia, for approximately five (5) weeks; (3) that he then served in Vietnam as a paratrooper with the 101st Airborne for 10 to 11 months and was thereafter released from the U.S. Army in early October, 1968; and (4) Defendant Baugh further testified that, while in Vietnam, he "was responsible for ... the death of enough people to assure his place in hell."

ALL OF BAUGH'S TESTIMONY DESCRIBED IN PARAGRAPH 3 HEREOF IS NOTHING BUT A PACK OF LIES UNDER OATH

- 4. All of the detailed and specific information to which Defendant, Bradford Baugh, testified under oath in pages 10 through 14 of his deposition transcript is patently false nothing but a pack of lies by the so-called "Dean of the Santa Clara County Family Law Bar." The truth as opposed to the false testimony under oath given by Defendant, Bradford Baugh, on Thursday, April 25, 2019 is this:
  - a. Bradford Baugh did not enlist in the U.S. Army at age 17 or at any other age- whether with or without parental consent.
  - b. Bradford Baugh graduated from Del Valle High School in Walnut Creek, CA, at age 18 in 1968 and not in 1967 as Baugh infers in his deposition testimony. Attached to this Declaration as Exhibit B is a copy of a photo of a Del Valle High School athletic team [track perhaps?]. Bradford Baugh appears in the first row at the very far right. Each of the three online Del Valle High School yearbooks for school years ending in 1966, 1967 and 1968 confirm that Bradford Baugh was in the class of 1968 and graduated from Del Valle High School in 1968. Exceptional as Defendant, Bradford Baugh believes himself to be, even he could not have been in both Vietnam serving as a paratrooper in the 101st Airborne and also attending his senior year in high school in Walnut Creek, CA, during the applicable 1967-1968 period.

- Bradford Baugh enrolled as an undergraduate freshman at Stanford University probably in August or September, 1968.
- d. Bradford Baugh never served in the United States Army as a paratrooper or otherwise and he never served in Vietnam. His claim to have done so is a false, flagrant and repulsive instance of "Stolen Valor." It is only one example of the stream of constant lies that I had to put up with over the period of more than six and one-half years that Bradford Baugh represented me and the Guardian ad Litem, Jeanne Schmidt, in my Santa Clara County Dissolution of Marriage proceeding.
- 5. Attached as Exhibit C to this Declaration is a copy of a letter dated May 22, 2019, addressed to me from the National Personnel Records Center ("NPRC"), which is part of our National Archives, located in St. Louis, MO. The subject of this letter that was sent by the NPRC in response to my inquiry is Bradford O. Baugh's claim to have served in the U.S. Army and in Vietnam. In its most relevant part, the letter states as follows:

"We have been unsuccessful in identifying a military service record for the above-named individual."

It bears repetition and emphasis here: Defendant Bradford Baugh - contrary to his sworn deposition testimony - never served in the United States Army and he never served in Vietnam.

6. Defendant Baugh used his "Stolen Valor" to burnish his image as a tough, relentless, "take no prisoners" family law lawyer. He did just that in a meeting with me at his office in relatively early 2010. [At that time, his claims made a huge impression on me.] Remarkably and sadly, Baugh also made use of "Stolen Valor" in the courtroom. Attached hereto as Exhibits D-1 through D-3 are two pages and the face page of a transcript of a hearing before Judge Aaron Persky on April 17, 2008.

keep -- isn't it easier to try and fix it? I mean, the other thing would have been to say -- for example, let's go to the fax that Ms. Wahl decided to send to Drew Perkins. Oh, but there's -- you know, how do we fix this? What's the proper way to handle what we presume is an inadvertent disclosure of a communication? Well, you know, you can't undo the fax, but you can make sure I don't see it and you make sure it gets sealed up and -- you know, and somebody says -- gives you a lot of recall material after the fact, you have no records, you have no files on your desk, anything. Now, I'm looking at this file and you said, do you remember and I start -- that sort of thing starts coming into the office, I want her out, you know. I don't want her to have anything jogged with that, so I'm going to cut, block her off. I don't want any -- any chance that she can recover memory like most people do when you read a document.

THE COURT: And what -- you know, if you're arguing for -- for example, a passage-of-time rule, what's the appropriate amount of time? You're saying five years is enough?

MR. BAUGH: You know -- no, I'm not saying it's necessarily the time, it's the content, what are the communications like. For example, no offense, if I say, I'm going to shoot you, you're going to remember that maybe for the rest of your life, okay. But I say, you know, the case of In re Marriage of Epstein to a nonfamily law judge, you ask him two years later what is the name of the case you cited, I don't know. It's not just the passage of time, I think that's -- that would be too arbitrary and that's why the cases talk about weight. It's what is the content. If someone -- I still remember people trying to shoot me in southeast Asia, I have a vivid memory of that. I don't have a vivid memory of what happened last year, but they are different things.

THE COURT: Right, but does that require that the court make an individualized analysis of a paralegal's memory? I mean, if Ms. Gill has a photographic memory, then it would seem that the five-year rule, five years is not enough and maybe nothing is enough.

MR. BAUGH: Oh, yes, if someone came in and says she has a photographic memory, but I think you bring the human experience and it does -- does -- I mean, let's talk about the specific case. While my father is dying am I thinking heavily about any case? I mean, what is the human experience? I don't think it's, gee, I wonder what I could do on a case that I'm -- that I can't even remember. I mean, their minds were on other things, and is that likely to be true or not.

THE COURT: All right, thank you. Any response?

MR. HAMMON: Judge, I'm very sympathetic to the death of someone's family member, I'm sympathetic to Mr.

Baugh being in Vietnam and been shot at, but the issues we're talking about today are very important and very significant issues. The issue with regards to confidentiality of information that attorneys get from a
